

Christiansburg IWLA trapshooters win big at 2015 state and national tournaments

Foreground, from left, Robbie Robbins, Audrey Sharp, and Dave Weaver with trophies they won at 2015 Amateur Trapshooting Association (ATA) state and national tournaments. Background, Arthur Bodell keeping score and Lynchburg IWLA trapshooter, Ted Carwile.

Robbie Robbins (far left) won the Rob Taylor Handicap event at the 116th Grand American World Trapshooting Championships held in August 2015 at the World Shooting and Recreational Complex, Sparta, Illinois.

Audrey Sharp is captain of the Virginia state women's team. She also won singles, handicap, and doubles championships, and high all around lady shooter at the 2015 Virginia Trapshooting Association state tournament in July at the Winchester Gun Club, Stephenson, VA.

Dave Weaver (far right) won several events at ATA zone and state shoots recently and won three trophies at the 2015 Grand American championships. As a result of high score and trophy points, Dave has qualified for the 2016 ATA All-American team. To be a member of the All-American team is one of the highest achievements a registered shooter can obtain.

Dave, Robbie, and Audrey have been IWLA Christiansburg chapter members for several years and, together with numerous other trapshooting enthusiasts such as Christiansburg board member, Arthur Bodell, have put in countless hours at the Christiansburg trap range.
